County Executive Thanks Staff for Support

Erie - The County Executive thanks staff for donations made on behalf of the American Cancer Society and Adagio Health Erie. All Erie County employees showed their immense support for these local organizations in recent weeks by donating monies to these two great causes. Daffodil Days blossomed into an enormous success for the County raising $945.00. Adagio Health Erie was the beneficiary of the County's "Jeans Day" on St. Patrick's Day which raised $665.00 with all employees donating five dollars to wear jeans. County Executive Grossman was quoted as saying, "the county employees are an extremely hard working and benevolent group of individuals and I am proud to serve as their County Executive". The American Cancer Society is committed to fighting cancer through research, education, patient service, advocacy, and rehabilitation. Adagio Health Erie provides breast and cervical screenings to uninsured women in Erie County, as well as addressing various other health concerns.
