Mission Statement: The mission of the Human Relations Commission is to eradicate discrimination in employment, housing, and public accommodation. The Commission provides a system of equal justice for employer/employee and landlord/tenant relations by conciliation and mediation services through the complaint process. The Commission educates individuals through workshops and seminars to confront discrimination, while at the same time teaching the inherent value of diversity. Our goal is to build bridges of respect and understanding among diverse groups, so that discrimination, in all its forms, is eliminated in our society.
